

INVITATION LETTER

To whom it may concern,

On behalf of the local organizing committee of ISASS-AP 2025 (Asia-Pacific Section of the International Society for the Advancement of Spine Surgery), I am honored to extend a sincere invitation to attend the ISASS-AP 2025 Annual Conference, which will be held in Suzhou, China, from September 24 to 27, 2025.

This conference will gather spine surgery experts, researchers, and clinical leaders from across the Asia-Pacific and beyond. It will offer a premier platform for academic exchange, presentation of cutting-edge research, and discussion of innovations in spinal surgery. Suzhou, known for its cultural heritage and scenic charm, will serve as an inspiring backdrop for this distinguished event.

We kindly request that the relevant authorities grant a visa to facilitate the applicant's travel and attendance.

For invited speakers and delegates, the local organizing committee will assist with logistics such as registration, accommodation, and airport transfers when applicable. For any further documentation or support required for visa processing, please feel free to contact us.

We look forward to welcoming you to Suzhou and to an outstanding ISASS-AP 2025.

Sincerely,

Prof. Huilin Yang

President of ISASS-AP 2025

Director, Department of Orthopedic Surgery

The First Affiliated Hospital of Soochow University
